INSURANCE DIVISION

The Bureau of Insurance was established by legislative enactment on March 21, 1873. From that date to the year 1913, the State Treasurer was ex-officio Insurance Commissioner. By Chapter 1, House Bill 55 of the General Assembly of 1913, the offices of the State Treasurer and Insurance Commissioner were separated. The Act created a separate Department of Insurance and provided for the qualifications of the Commissioner and his appointment by the Governor for a term of four years. Public Chapter No. 311, Senate Bill No. 1038, Public Acts of 1983, changed name and designation of the Department and Commissioner to the Department of Commerce and Insurance and the Commissioner of Commerce and Insurance, effective May 17, 1983.

The Insurance Commissioner's report for the calendar year 1985 includes statistics compiled from abstracts of the Annual Statements and is published in tabular form, giving analysis, classification and summary of items comprising the Assets, Liabilities, Surplus, Gain and Loss Exhibits. The figures given of companies of Tennessee and other states and countries are those submitted by the companies in their annual statements under oath, except where changed by the Department audit or by request of the companies. The annual statements and schedules of all companies are on file in the offices of the Insurance Division subject to public inspection.

As of December 31, 1985, there were licensed and transacting business in Tennessee the following number of companies or organizations:

DIVISION OF FIRE PREVENTION

The Division of Fire Prevention, also known as the State Fire Marshal's Office, is administered by the Commissioner of Commerce and Insurance, who serves as State Fire Marshal, through the Assistant Commissioner for Fire Prevention. The Division is responsible for many aspects of fire prevention across the state. The duties of the Division include but are not limited to public fire safety education, development and enforcement of fire and building construction codes, investigation and prosecution of arson and related offenses, regulation of liquefied petroleum gas and gasoline bulk-storage plants, administration of manufactured homes and recreational vehicle regulatory programs, inspection of boilers and elevators, inspection of electrical installations, regulation of fireworks sale and manufacture, regulation of fire extinguishers, regulation of explosives-users and collection and analysis of fire data.

The Division is organized into eight (8) sections: Administration, Arson Investigation, Boiler and Elevator Inspection, Electrical Inspection, Plans Review, Fire Safety Inspection, Manufactured Housing and Firefighter Certification (Commission for Firefighting Personnel Standards).

Revenue:

No state appropriations. All revenue received and used is earned by penalties, fees, or forfeitures, and collection of the ¾ of 1% premium tax on fire insurance premiums collected in Tennessee and credited to the Fire Prevention Fund for maintenance of this Division as specified in T.C.A. 68-17-140 and 68-17-142.

Revenues collected by the Division of Fire Prevention during the year 1985 were:

Fees and Permits	$3,734,327.96
Fire Marshal's Premium Tax	2,772,339.14
TOTAL	$6,506,667.10

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

This section, consisting of the Assistant Commissioner for Fire Prevention and his administrative and legal staff, performs the executive, administrative, and legal duties related to the operation and coordination of the various sections of the Division of Fire Prevention. These duties include planning of goals and objectives for the Division; establishment and implementation of Division policies; legal opinions; procurement of equipment and supplies; personnel management; collection, analysis, and dissemination of fire data; public fire education and information; and serving as liaison to local fire departments.

The Administrative Section received over 35,000 fire incident reports during 1985. Fire departments from 160 cities and towns use the computerized Tennessee Fire Incident Reporting System (TFIRS) to report their fire data to the state. A progressive public fire education and information program is operated in cooperation with local fire departments. During 1985, this program reached approximately 1.5 million people in all 95 counties in Tennessee.

A film library is maintained by the section. The library consists of 115 different 35mm slide, video, and 16mm film presentations. The slides and films cover many subject areas in fire prevention, education, training, and fire safety. The slides and films are loaned free of charge to fire departments and other fire safety groups for use in promoting or teaching fire safety. At any one time, over 40% of the selections are checked out with particular high demand during Fire Prevention Week in October.

A record is kept of all the fire departments in the state. This information includes the operating officers of the fire department, the amount of equipment, personnel, population protected, square miles served, and other pertinent information.

ARSON INVESTIGATION SECTION

The Tennessee Arson Investigation Section is the investigative arm of the State Fire Marshal's Office. This section investigates the cause, origin and circumstances of complex fires, explosions, and other criminal acts where a fire or explosion is involved and investigates all deaths caused by fire or explosion.

This section plans and organizes Arson Investigation Programs within the state, conducts training programs and seminars for local and federal agencies involved in arson investigation and fire prevention. It also enforces state statutes on explosives, fireworks and investigates fire insurance fraud claims, presents reports and information to District Attorneys General for prosecution, and makes arrests for violations where necessary.

This section also regulates the fireworks industry in the state by issuing permits to manufacturers, distributors, jobbers, wholesalers, and retailers of fireworks. In 1985, fireworks permits collections totalled $213,485.00 in revenue to the state.

Five district offices are maintained across the state located in the major cities for convenience and efficiency.

The following schedule reflects the number of investigations conducted during the year 1985, and the results of cases prosecuted.

BOILER AND ELEVATOR INSPECTION SECTION

Two separate statutes are administered by this section as reported hereunder:

Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspection Section

This section is responsible for the administration and enforcement of the Tennessee Boiler and Unfired Pressure Vessel Inspection Law, Rules and Regulations. The law provides for and requires all boilers and unfired pressure vessels in the State of Tennessee to be constructed, stamped and installed in accordance with the American National Standard A.S.M.E. Boiler and Pressure Vessel Code. The law also requires periodic inspections of all inservice boilers and pressure vessels with issuance of Certificates of Inspection; establishes qualifications for inspectors to include written examinations prepared by the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors to permit issuance of State of Tennessee and National Board Commissions; provides for examination and licensing of all boiler and pressure vessel erection and repair contractors doing business in the state and requires all alterations and repairs to be approved by an authorized inspector. Another important function of this section is the service of conducting quality control system surveys and reviews in boiler and pressure vessel manufacturers' shops and at field sites, leading to issuance of Certificates of Authorization from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers to fabricate and code stamp boilers, pressure vessels and nuclear power plant components. The section also functions as the authorized inspection agency in a number of manufacturing shops engaged in fabrication of boilers and pressure vessels.

A Board of Boiler Rules has been created as provided for in the law with six members appointed by the Governor for four year terms. The Board meets quarterly to hear appeals; to rule on requests for special applications not specifically covered by codes or rules; to make interpretations of codes and to update rules and regulations with technological developments.

Number of inspections, certificates issued and revenue collected by Boiler Section in 1985 is listed hereunder:

Boiler & Pressure Vessel Inspection Certificates Issued	17,430
Inspections by State Inspectors	5,455

The Elevator Safety Act provides for and requires all new elevator, dumbwaiter, escalator and aerial passenger tramway plans and plans for alterations to be submitted to this section for approval and issuance of new construction or alteration permits. Acceptance inspections are required for all new installations and alterations to assure compliance with the American National Standard Safety Code. All such equipment is inspected periodically after initial acceptance inspections to authorize issuance of annual operating permits. The act also provides for establishing qualifications, examinations and licensing of inspectors authorized to inspect elevators in the State of Tennessee.

As provided for in the act, an Elevator Safety Board has been created consisting of five members, appointed by the Governor for terms of four years. The Board meets periodically as business requires to hear appeals, to rule on requests for special applications not specifically covered by codes, rules and regulations; to make interpretations of rules and regulations and to update rules and regulations with technological developments.

ELECTRICAL SECTION

The Electrical Section is charged with conducting an inspection program available to all citizens of Tennessee. The purpose of this program is to ensure that anchoring and electrical installations are performed in a safe and uniform manner.

While conducting this program, utilizing some 65 contractual field inspectors, this section generated net receipts in the amount of some $594,000.00 during 1985, processed 10,997 applications for electrical registrations, performed 101,783 electrical inspections and 6,823 inspections of mobile home anchoring installations.

ENGINEERING PLANS REVIEW

The Engineering Plans Review Section reviews plans for daycare facilities, schools through twelfth grade, and state owned buildings throughout Tennessee. In areas outside the jurisdictions of the local governments which are authorized to do plans review and inspections, the section also reviews plans for detention facilities, assembly occupancies for 300 or more people, and three (3) or more story residential and business occupancies. Sprinkler plans for all the above projects and for all the projects under the jurisdiction of the Department of Health and Environment are reviewed also.

The technical staff members (8) of the section provide inspection services on new and existing projects as requested by the owner, or by the Fire Safety Section. Fees were collected during calendar year 1985 for 312 projects, and 1321 separate reviews were performed.

Also during the 1985 calendar year a new Fire Protection Sprinkler Systems Contractor Licensing Law went into effect. This law requires that sprinkler contractors be registered and that their responsible managing employees be licensed by this office. 43 sprinkler contractors were registered, and 44 responsible managing employees were licensed between the months of June and December.

A newsletter is sent out to constituents on a quarterly basis, and speakers from the section addressed groups on fire codes and regulations. In addition, a large volume of various technical questions were answered by telephone, consultations, and by mail.

The clerical staff (2) processed a large number of inquiries daily and sent out letters regarding delinquent projects. Requests for handicap code books are processed and distributed by this section.

THE COMMISSION ON FIREFIGHTING PERSONNEL STANDARDS AND EDUCATION

The Commission on Firefighting Personnel Standards and Education is attached to the Department of Commerce and Insurance, Division of Fire Prevention, for fiscal purposes as established by T.C.A. Title 4, Chapter 24.

The Commission is responsible for:

(1) Approving the training programs offered by county and municipal fire departments, both paid and volunteer.

(2) Recommending and approving curricula for advanced courses and seminars in fire science, fire engineering and training in institutions of higher education or other state supported schools; and certifying instructors for those programs.

(3) Establishing classifications based on training and education for all firefighting personnel who desire to be certified and successfully pass the examination for the various classifications given by the Commission.

(4) Preparing a standard examination to test the levels of training and education of applicants for certification and establishing a passing grade therefor.

(5) Disbursing the monies for the supplemental training pay to firefighters who qualify in accordance with the provisions of T.C.A. Title 4, Chapter 24, when said funds are appropriated.

FOR CALENDAR YEAR 1985

This has been a hectic year for the Commission and staff. In mid-June, the legislature awarded the Commission an appropriation of two (2) million dollars ($1,948,800 after deduction of administrative costs) for the payment of the state salary to eligible firemen. This appropriation was so totally unexpected at this time, or ever for that matter, that no rules had been adopted to address this section of the law. Consequently, the Commission and staff spent a tremendous amount of time and energy in the process of promulgating rules for the disbursement of these monies. Numerous drafts were written and rewritten prior to reaching a concise set of rules considered suitable for adoption. The rules were initiated into the formal adoption process on November 26, 1985.

Contacts were made with approximately 600 (some of these were recalls) fire departments and local government officials for the purpose of clarifying the requirements for participation in both the certification and salary supplement programs. As a result of these contacts, 48 departments were initiated into the certification program. An additional 80 departments applied, and were approved, for the state salary supplement program with approximately 5,000 eligible personnel participating.

The Commission approved a pump operator's course for the Newbern Area Vocational-Technical School and the instructor course offered by the State Fire School.

Thirty-four (34) examinations were developed and administered with 468 applicants participating, resulting in an overall passing rate of approximately 61% and the certification of:

86	at the Firefighter I Level
63	at the Firefighter II Level
84	at the Journeyman Firefighter Level
53	at the Fire Department Instructor I Level
286	Total individual certificates issued

The Commission also certified four (4) instructors for the State Fire School as Fire Service Instructors and awarded interim certification to one hundred twenty-one (121) fire department instructors.

FIRE SAFETY SECTION

The Fire Safety Section is charged with the responsibility of enforcing state statutes, Southern Building Codes and National Fire Protection Association Codes (especially the "Life Safety Code") for the purpose of protecting the citizens of Tennessee from possible injury or death from fire. This section is further charged under Department of Commerce and Insurance Regulations. Chapter 0780-2-3 Section 0780-3-.06, effective August 26, 1982, with inspecting all educational occupancies, detention and correctional occupancies and state buildings under construction to insure that the construction meets the equivalent standards of the Standard Building Code and the National Fire Codes. As of January 1, 1983, the inspection requirement was extended to include all business and/or residential occupancies three (3) or more stories in height, excluding those cities authorized to conduct reviews and inspections of new construction within their jurisdictions.

Amendments to Chapter 0780-2-3, Section 0780-2-3-.03, paragraphs 4 and 5 effective as of November 11, 1985, extends that responsibility to include the inspection of new construction of special purpose industrial facilities over 40,000 square feet, high hazard industrial occupancies and covered malls as of January 1, 1986, and the inspection of two story residential occupancies having more than twelve (12) units effective July 1, 1986.

Chapter 0780-2-2, Section 0780-2-2-.01, sub-paragraph 1(a) and (b) were further amended to adopt the 1985 Edition of the Southern Building Code and National Fire Code, Volume 7, Section 1-1982 including all National Fire Code references listed under Annex "A" thereto, effective November 11, 1985.

During the calendar year of 1985 the Fire Safety Section concentrated on construction progress inspections of new construction of state owned and local governmental buildings, assemblies over 300 occupancy and buildings three or more floors in height. This section continued to conduct re-inspections and provide assistance to the school superintendents in the correction of hazards found during our school fire safety survey program that was completed in the spring of 1982 for public schools and in December 1983 for private schools. By conducting revisit inspections of schools and providing assistance to the school superintendents and the school boards, the school systems have been able to reduce the points listed on the school survey computer printout. All school systems were in the process of correcting life safety code problems with new construction, renovation and/or by use of their own maintenance crews. Resurveys were initiated at the beginning of the 1985-86 school year and will be completed by June 30, 1986.

The Fire Safety Section conducted a total of approximately 10,300 inspections and associated activities for fire code compliance, including consultations with architects, contractors, builders, and owners either at on-site construction projects, architect's office and/or Division of Fire Prevention offices.

During the calendar year 1985 the Fire Safety Section collected the following revenue for certificates of registration, licenses and LP gas.

Explosives Certificates of Registration	$62,103.00
Liquefied Petroleum Gas Dealers Licensed	35,430.00

MANUFACTURED HOUSING AND RECREATIONAL VEHICLES

This section of the Division of Fire Prevention is responsible for state administration and enforcement of the Uniform Code for Factory Manufactured Structures and Recreational Vehicles and the National Manufactured Home Construction and Safety Standards Act. This section also regulates manufactured structures industries by licensing manufacturers, dealers and stabilizing systems installers doing business within the state, performing in-plant production line inspections of manufactured home and recreational vehicles during the course of construction, and performing inspections of completed units on dealers' lots.

This section also participates in the HUD manufactured housing consumer complaints handling within the State of Tennessee as HUD approved state administrative agency.

Revenue increased $52,511.20 over 1984, due to the increase in production and economic conditions.

The Division's jurisdiction covers any trade or commercial transactions involving Tennessee consumers or businesses operating in the State of Tennessee.

CONSUMER COMPLAINT INVESTIGATION AND MEDIATION

Consumer complaints are assigned to a specific coordinator who then contacts the respondent business, assembles available information and attempts to mediate the complaint. If the complaint remains unresolved, the complainant is notified that he or she may have a right of private action under T.C.A. 47-18-109 or that the case is to be referred to the Attorney General's office for possible legal action.

CONSUMER INQUIRIES

The Division receives thousands of inquiries from consumers each year. In some cases the consumer is referred to other state or federal agencies. In others the Division personnel, utilizing complaint records or information files, answers these requests.

INVESTIGATIONS INITIATED BY DIVISION

Occasionally, through requests from other agencies or from government officials, the Division will initiate an investigation to determine the status of a particular business or genre of business where it is felt to be in the best interests of the public to do so.

LEGAL ACTION

By statute the Division can request the state Attorney General's office to become involved in a case whenever the Division has reason to believe that a person is engaging in, has engaged in, or based upon information received from another law-enforcement agency is about to engage in any act or practice declared to be unlawful by the Consumer Protection Act.

CONSUMER EDUCATION

Through communication with federal, state and local agencies and various other sources, the Division maintains up-to-date information files and compiles consumer tipsheets for use in disseminating information to consumers.

Several members of the staff accept speaking engagements on various topics of consumer education, and there is an on-going effort to provide information to consumers through media appearances and press releases. During fiscal year 1985, thousands of persons were reached through speaking engagements and there were numerous media appearances.

CONSUMER LEGISLATION

The Division actively seeks information from other state and federal agencies regarding legislation and regulations affecting consumers and can provide this information to members of the legislature or others interested in sponsoring consumer legislation.

SECURITIES DIVISION

The Division is charged with regulation of the securities industry. There are three sections under the supervision of chiefs who report to the Assistant Commissioner—Securities, who in turn reports to the Commissioner.

SECURITIES REGISTRATION

The Securities Registration Section processes applications for registration of new issues of non-exempt securities. Registration statements are reviewed to determine whether they meet minimum standards as to disclosure of material information and as to fairness and reasonableness. No effort is made to investigate the facts provided by the Registrant. This section also processes requests for exemptions and responds to requests for no-action letters and requests for interpretive opinions.

The following table summarizes the activities and results of this Section:

	1980	1981	1982	1983	1984	1985
Number of New Registrations	1,365	2,044	2,082	2,365	1,762	2,065

Fees	$557,310	$956,294	$1,100,793	$1,619,270	$1,507,731	$1,909,581

For the first time in five years, the total fees for registrations have decreased. The number of registrations filed have continued to increase although at a reduced rate. This is due in large part to Tennessee having adopted the North American Securities Administrators version of the Uniform Limited Offering Exemption.

BROKER-DEALER/AGENT REGISTRATION

This Section is responsible for registration and regulation of securities broker-dealers and their salesmen, and investment advisors. Applications for registration are carefully reviewed both as to adequacy and accuracy in an effort to maintain minimum standards for members of industry. The following table summarizes this Section's activity:

Registrants	1980	1981	1982	1983	1984	1985
Broker-Dealer/ Investment Advisors	571	490	570	700	870	1,135

Examinations	795	—	5	10	7	4
Staffing	4	4	4	4	5	5

The increase in dealers has been due to increased public interest in investments in real estate syndications, oil and gas interest and limited partnerships and other tax shelters.

The increase in agents is due to the upswing in the market and the registration of new dealers that offer tax shelters.

ENFORCEMENT

This section is responsible for enforcement of the anti-fraud provision of the Securities Law. It investigates complaints from investors, follows up leads provided by other regulatory agencies, and initiates investigations based on information from informants. Cases are developed wherever possible for administrative, civil or criminal proceedings. In 1985, 31 investigations were initiated. Two (2) cases were referred for criminal prosecution. There were three (3) indictments. Five (5) Agent applications were denied. One (1) Broker-Dealer application was denied. Five (5) Broker-Dealer licenses were revoked. There were nineteen (19) Consent Orders which resulted in Cease and Desist or Suspensions of three (3) Broker-Dealers and thirteen (13) Agents. Three (3) Broker-Dealers were fined a total of $10,500 and one (1) Agent, $1,000. Other Consent Orders were entered against eighteen (18) unregistered companies and individuals.

STATE BOARD OF ARCHITECTURAL AND ENGINEERING EXAMINERS

The State Board of Architectural and Engineering Examiners was originally created by Public Acts of 1921, to assure that only properly qualified persons shall practice architecture and engineering in this state. Public Acts of 1975 completely rescinded the old statutes governing the Board and replaced them with a new act. Again in 1979, Sunset Legislation brought about major revisions by an act to restructure the Board of Examiners for Architects and Engineers and the Board of Landscape Architects by combining such boards to create a single entity, to provide a termination date for such entity under the Governmental Entity Review Law, to provide for consumer representation on such entity, to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-2903, and to repeal Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 62, Chapters 2 and 23.

This Board consists of seven (7) members: three (3) registered architects, three (3) registered engineers and one (1) member who is not engaged in the practice of architecture, engineering or landscape architecture. The Board is required to appoint a committee on Landscape Architecture for the administration of the Landscape Architectural registration process. This committee shall be composed of one (1) Architectural Board member, one (1) Engineering Board member, and the third member shall be a Landscape Architect.

Uniform national examinations for each of the three respective professions are administered by the Board. Tennessee candidates passing scores rank with the national and regional averages.

During the fiscal year 1984-85, the production activity of the State Board of Architectural and Engineering Examiners was:

TENNESSEE PERSONNEL RECRUITING SERVICES BOARD

The General Assembly replaced the Private Employment Agency Board with the current Personnel Recruiting Services Board by Chapter 865 of the Public Acts of 1984. The duties include licensing and inspecting personnel recruiting services, licensing personnel recruiting service managers and consultants; and investigating complaints. To carry out these mandates, the Board restricts licensure to persons over 18 years of age who pay certain fees, pass the Board's exam, and show themselves to be financially responsible. Personnel consultants must work as registered affiliates for thirty days before they are licensed. The owner of a personnel recruiting service must apply for licensure, identify who will serve as the manager, and provide evidence of financial responsibility. To receive or renew a license, quailfied applicants must submit a license fee. Licenses expire on June 30 of each odd-numbered year. If a license is issued which will expire in less than one year, the fee is reduced by 50 percent.

The Personnel Recruiting Services Board consists of six members appointed by the Governor: four are licensed managers owning an interest in a personnel recruiting service, one is a user of such services, and one represents the general public. Board meetings are authorized to be held as necessary to conduct Board business.

TENNESSEE REAL ESTATE COMMISSION

State regulation of the real estate industry began in 1915, was revised in 1919, but only required the filing of an application, paying a fee, giving a bond and paying a privilege tax. This licensing was administered by the County Court Clerks. In 1951 the legislature created the Tennessee Real Estate Commission. The Commission Code has been amended and revised several times and is presently operating under Tennessee Brokers Act of 1973 as amended. 1983 witnessed a continual rapid growth in the Time Share industry. Time Sharing, also known as interval ownership, enables a person to own his vacation home at a particular time of year without the cost and responsibility of full-time ownership. This new industry has been responsible for a growing number of consumer complaints. There are currently seven (7) Commissioners appointed by the Governor each for a term of five (5) years. Two (2) public members were appointed to the board in 1980-81.

The basic responsibility of the Commission is to ensure protection to the public. This is accomplished by requiring and rendering competency examinations; requiring an apprenticeship for broker applicants; supervised affiliation for salesman applicants; establishing educational requirements; initiating investigations to eliminate incompetence, misrepresentation and fraud among some agents; and to help develop professionalism among real estate agents. Beginning January 1, 1985 agents are paying a recovery fund fee instead of the old bond requirement. The Commission, after proper hearings, is empowered to revoke or suspend licenses. Their performance activity for the fiscal year 1985 is as shown:

ACTIVITY	NUMBER
Examinations	9,661
Renewals (Biennial)	3,038
Transfers	7,421
Duplicate Licenses	272
Rental Locators	15
Retirement	10,257

INVESTIGATION SECTION

The Investigative Section of the Regulatory Boards experienced some innovative changes during the calendar year of 1985.

An experimental report form was accepted by the investigators and the staff attorneys as a practical change.

Report writing methods were altered from the third person to the first and a more practical means of communication.

Investigative report identifications were changed from ROI "report of investigation," IM "investigative memorandum," and L "leads" by elimination. The prefix only identified the source of complaint, ROI—affidavit of complaint, IM—not sworn to, and L—news article type source, and created three sets of card reference files. Each report now receives a sequential number and the Board's abbreviated name. The reports had been prefixed by the fiscal year and it became the calendar year effective January 1, 1986. Confusion developed from '86 reports that were originated during July of 1985, etc.

A concerted effort was successful in reducing the portfolio of assigned cases of each investigator and a reasonable investigative response time was developed.

Our statistical reports have been simplified to incorporate the performance of each investigator and a compilation of the three grand divisions of Tennessee as a team effort. Office inspections are high-lighted to include discovered violations and a tremendous increase will be noted in the 1986 stats. (Jan., Feb., and March averaged 185 per month with a total of 305 violations).

The total activity for the calendar year of 1985:

ACTIVITY	NUMBER
Cases Opened	349
Cases Closed	467
Real Estate Inspections	532
Real Estate Violations	85
Private Recruiting Services	90
Private Recruiting Violations	6

LEGAL SECTION

There are five (5) staff attorneys and one (1) legal assistant working for the Regulatory Boards. The attorneys handle board meetings and hearings. The staff attorney's primary duties are:

1. To prepare and present contested case hearings initiated by the filing of charges as a result of complaints filed against licensees by consumers, licensees or the individual board or commission;
2. To draft legislation and rules concerning the operation of the Regulatory Boards, and the businesses and professions which they regulate,
3. To conduct rule-making hearings and attend legislative committee meetings at which matters pertaining to the Boards are considered;
4. To attend regular board meetings of the fifteen (15) Regulatory Boards for the purpose of answering legal questions and otherwise helping to guide the proceedings;
5. To respond to a large volume of legal inquiries from consumers, affected businesses and counsel for respondents in contested cases;
6. Review all proposed contracts to which the Regulatory Boards are a party;
7. Act as a liaison between the Boards and Office of the Attorney General and Secretary of State;
8. To file criminal charges and assist District Attorneys with the prosecution of licensees who have engaged in criminal conduct;
9. To ensure that the Regulatory Boards and Commissions are in compliance with the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act and other applicable legislation; and
10. To provide administrative legal support to the Director of the Regulatory Boards.

Presently, the primary responsibility for drafting legislation and rules is held by the Attorney for the Commissioner of the Department of Commerce and Insurance. The Regulatory Boards' attorneys do play an active part in this process.

The staff attorneys review all investigative reports submitted by the Investigative Section. During Fiscal Year 1985, three hundred forty-nine (349) reports of investigation were submitted to the staff attorneys for review and recommendation for action to the Boards.

There were eighty-four (84) formal hearings and eighty-two (82) informal conferences. These resulted in the revocation of forty-five (45) licenses, suspensions of seventeen (17) licenses, the probation of thirty-two (32) licensees and thirty-nine (39) reprimands. The civil penalties assessed from formal hearings for Pharmacy Board totaled seven thousand two hundred fifty ($7,250.00) dollars. Contractors Board had five (5) criminal fines of thirty-three thousand five hundred ($33,500.00) dollars.
